

11/205 Johnston Street FITZROY VIC

2 2

This urban trend-setting conversion sets the bar high, with its gallery style trademark.

Huge open plan living/dining, 2 generous bedrooms, both with ensuites and North facing orientation, foyer or ideal reception area for your home/office or light-filled display room.

Built in the 1950's, the property has a rich history with previous occupants of a clothing factory, theatre and a Buddhist Temple. Renovated to perfection in 2017 sparing no expense, keeping its original features including 3.3 metre high concrete ceilings, and beautiful brickwork.

The split level design combines a mix of polished concrete and traditional hardwood timber floors.

Showcasing a custom design fitout, including cool copper light fittings and range hood, imported Italian tiles, very rare
